DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is the answer to the Appeal Brief received on 8/16/2005.
2. Claims 47-86 are pending in this application.

Response

3. On 10/26/2005, the applicant left a telephone message for a previous USPTO's argument that a Terminal Disclaimer should be made for US Pat. 6,052,672 before a Notice of Allowance of SN. 09/535,573 is issued; the applicant requests an obviousness-type double patenting rejection is issued for the record because there are different scopes between the pending invention and US Pat. 6,052,672. The examiner withdraws a final office action mailed on 3/02/2005.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 3661

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 47-86 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-46 of U.S. Patent No. 6,052,672. Although the conflicting claims are not expressly identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the applicant asserts that it has a different scope; however, the examiner recognizes that in the pending application, e.g., “providing a database ... for pricing a transaction” in the preamble of claim 47, is the same as a limitation of claim 1 (US Pat. 6,052,672) “creating a database, comprising.” (this comprising covers limitations of claim 47 – here, the body of the claim makes no reference back to the database of the preamble; dependent claims are rejected for the same rationales).

6. Notes: The Court held that the preamble language may not a limitation in a certain case, because:

- applicant did not rely on a preamble phrase to define the invention, or
- the preamble phrase is not essential to understand limitations or terms in the body of the claim, or
- deletion of the phrase from the preamble does not effect the structural definition or operation of the claimed method, or
- the body of the claim defines a structurally complete invention.
- See Catalina Mktg. Int’l, Inc. v. Coolsavings.com, Inc., 289 F.3d 801, 808, 62 USPQ2d 1781, 1784 (Fed. Cir. 2002).

Art Unit: 3661
